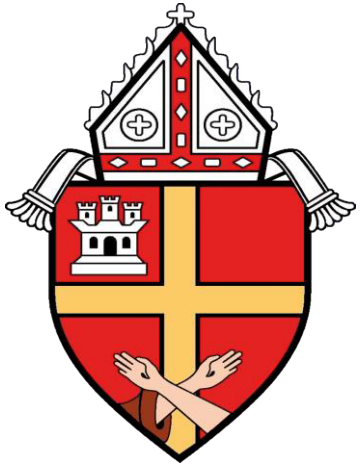
ASF Therapist Referral Network



The Archdiocese of Santa Fe Therapist Referral Network is a list of counselors and therapists who have obtained education and training from the Archdiocese about the theologies, traditions, and values of the Catholic faith. The Archdiocese believes that such education and training gives participating counselors and therapists a greater understanding of our faith and its teachings in order to provide them with knowledge they may find helpful in counseling those of the Catholic faith. The Network list is updated annually. NOTE: All those referred to counselors on the list must read the disclaimer on the back of this brochure, or have it read to them at the time the referral is made.
